COMPETENCES

2007- 2008 Kizito was named Rocky of the year. He managed to get interest from Stoke City (Great Britain) and Sparta Rotterdam (The Netherlands). He started in the top 3 of best scoring strikers in the league and managed to end 8th on the list, but he played only 4 months due to an injury. Ricky van Wolfswinkel became top scorer of the competition.

OTHER NOTABLES

In the 2007-2008 season, as a freshman A, he was chosen as the best newcomer of the youth at Excelsior. In that year he received interest from Stoke City and Sparta Rotterdam. That year he finished 8th in the top scores list. On 1 was Van Wolfswinkel playing at Sporting Lisbon now. He only played football for 6 months that season due to an injury.

Internship:

He did an internship at SC Dynamo Dresden, the internship went well, but he got injured, so he could not pass the medical examination.

FC Eindhoven:

Stage successfully completed (John Lammers called him a diamond in the rough) was allowed to join the selection only due to KNVB legislation, this unfortunately did not happen.

During his internship in Germany, he aroused the interest of Westbrom Albion's Scout who took him to Serie C1. Here he received a nice offer, but he had to turn it down because of his documents.
